Storia

Caorle una città antica con lunghe spiagge sabbiose e un patrimonio naturale tra i più importanti: la laguna. Qui ci sono ancora oggi i tipici casòni in legno e canna palustre dei pescatori. Luoghi che hanno ospitato Ernest Hemingway e proprio in quest'angolo di paesaggio lo scrittore si ritirava a fumare i sigari rigorosamente profumati d'anice. Prendendo in prestito il personaggio di Ernest Hemingway e quindi immersendosi in questo ambiente incontaminato, nasce ANISSEJ life, che vuole rappresentare l'emblema di questo rito.

The story

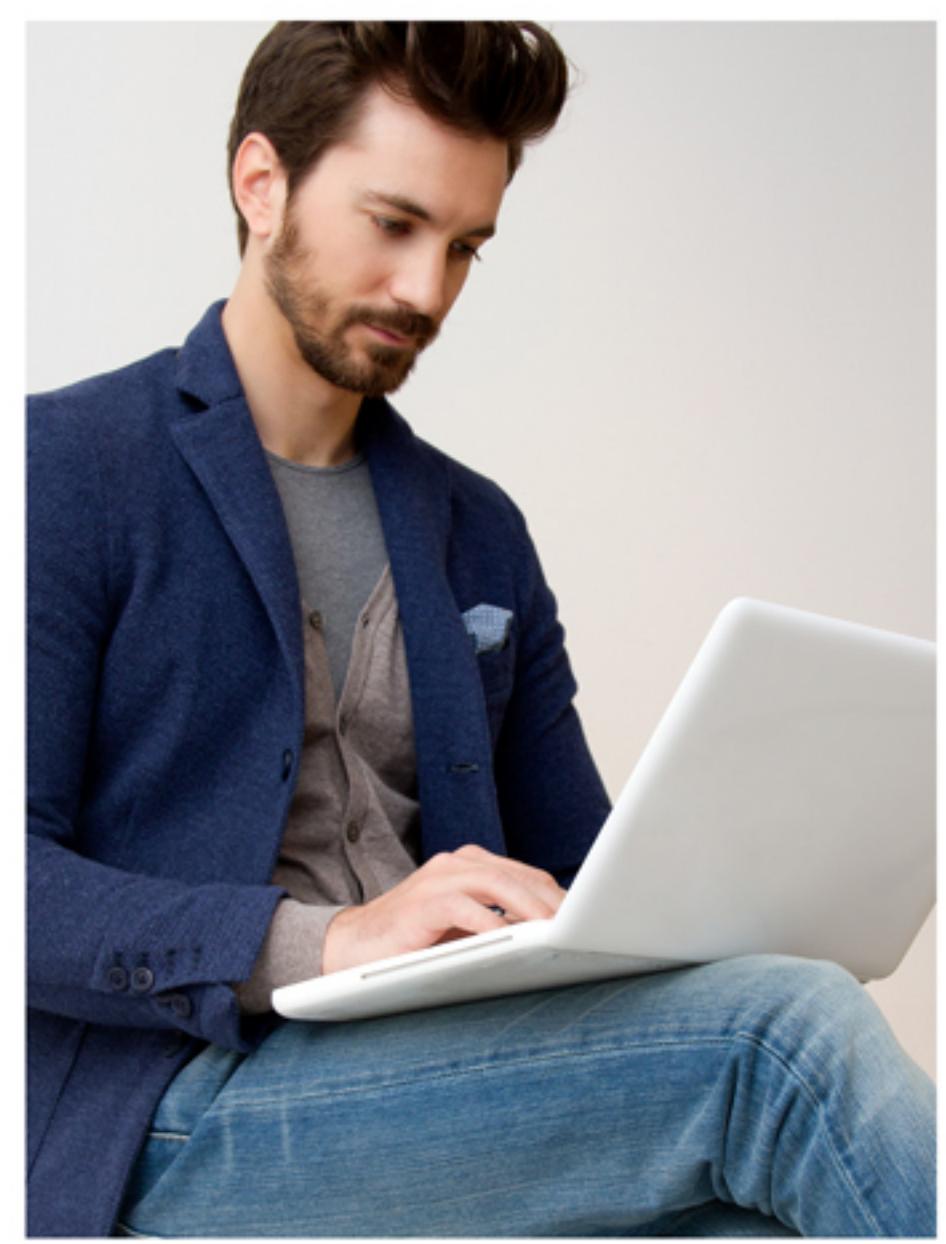

Caorle is an ancient town with long sandy beaches and a natural heritage - the most important being: the lagoon. Here you'll still find the traditional wooden huts and wooden fishing rods of the fishermen. Places that have often hosted Ernest Hemingway as he would often recluse himself in this corner of nature to smoke anise scented cigars. AnisseJ life immerses borrowing the character of Ernest Hemingway and thus, immerses itself in this un spoilt nature, ANISSEJ life embodies and represents this ritual.
